"Sara and Me" got a letter the other day. It came all the way from New York and told some pleasant and interesting facts. It contained just such news as the Bazaar patrons and our host of friends will be glad to hear.

Mr. Anderson for several weeks has been sojourning in that big New York town, looking out for bargains, and with the usual result of such a search, he has found them in abundance. He says "Sara and Me" may continue to stand "head" in these parts, when it comes to handing out to the trade, Stylish Goods, Good Goods, and Bargain Goods. Of course we are pleased to hear all this—pleased that 'tis our privilege to continue catering to the wants of the good folks who have always kindly favored "Sara and Me," pleased that these new Spring Goods are arriving DAILY, pleased altogether with the good news this letter brings to us and to our friends.

There is still another announcement interesting to the folks who are thinking of New Hats and Millinery Goods. "Sara" is now in one of the largest millinery houses in Cincinnati, getting the newest ideas, buying the stock and thoroughly fitting herself for the season's demands, so that the Bazaar Hats will be up to the high standard they have so long enjoyed. "Sara" says she is keeping in mind both the long and short faces, and that each customer shall have a Hat that just suits. She will be gone several days, arriving at the Bazaar, however, in due season for the "new spring bonnet's" appearance.

With these announcements for the present, reminding the folks of that one them, the "Wear Forever" Shoe, that is always in season and that can be purchased of "Sara and Me" only, we invite you to make early and frequent visits at the Bazaar, where New Goods will now be arriving daily and where we'll gladly tell you of any further news afloat and of how times are to be this Spring with

"SARA AND ME" AT ANDERSON'S BAZAAR.
